

Thermostat Savings Chart

TXU Energy recommends a thermostat setting of 78 degrees when using Air Conditioning and a thermostat setting of 70 degrees when heating is used. For example a thermostat setting of 75 degrees will cost 24% or more than a setting of 78 degrees when using Air Conditioning. Use this thermostat chart to measure your potential costs or savings by adjusting your thermostat setting.

